

Some of the greatest highlights of the east coast of South America are within your reach on Seven Seas Mariner, which departs Buenos Aires for 12 nights on 13 February 2018, including an overnight stay in Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro.

In buzzing cosmopolitan Buenos Aires experience a huge variety of ethnic cuisine, from typical 'asado' barbecue to Southeast Asian, Middle Eastern and even Scandinavian. Take a tango masterclass or take a glimpse into the life of Eva Peron at the Evita Museum.

Do as the locals do in Uruguay and relax at chic beach resorts and admire paintings and sculptures from Latin American artists, including the famous Casa Oueblo, the residence of Carlos Paez Vilaró.

In Brazil, be overwhelmed by mother nature and her astounding feats – see turtles, capybaras and exotic water birds, as well as many species of the delightfully energetic hummingbird. Contrast this with stylish São Paulo and historic Parati, with its tastefully maintained colonial homes.

Finally, enjoy the vibrant and happy samba rhythms of Rio de Janeiro, where there's always a sense of Carnival in the air. Explore the exuberant beaches and ascend the Sugar Loaf for the perfect view of one of South America's most fulfilling cities.
