Explore the seventh continent

See the world
like never before

A wide-angle photograph of a desolate, icy landscape. In the foreground and middle ground, there are large, sculpted mounds of snow and ice, some with deep blue crevasses. A line of about ten small figures, likely people, is visible in the lower-left quadrant, walking across a flat, snow-covered area. In the background, a steep, rocky mountain peak rises above the snow. The sky is a pale, overcast blue.
