

THE ENCHANTING DANUBE

Your gateway to Europe

We call our Enchanting Danube itinerary a "cultural tasting menu." Why? Because it takes curious travelers to four iconic destinations at the heart of Europe in just 8 days, stopping in no less than seven towns along the way. This itinerary is the perfect first-time introduction to the region, as well as an excellent way to revisit beloved destinations you haven't traveled to in a while.

Now's the time to book this incredible itinerary, while you can still enjoy savings of $1,500 per person on select sailings or book your spot on one of our Solo Traveler departures with 100% waived single supplements.

Itinerary Highlights

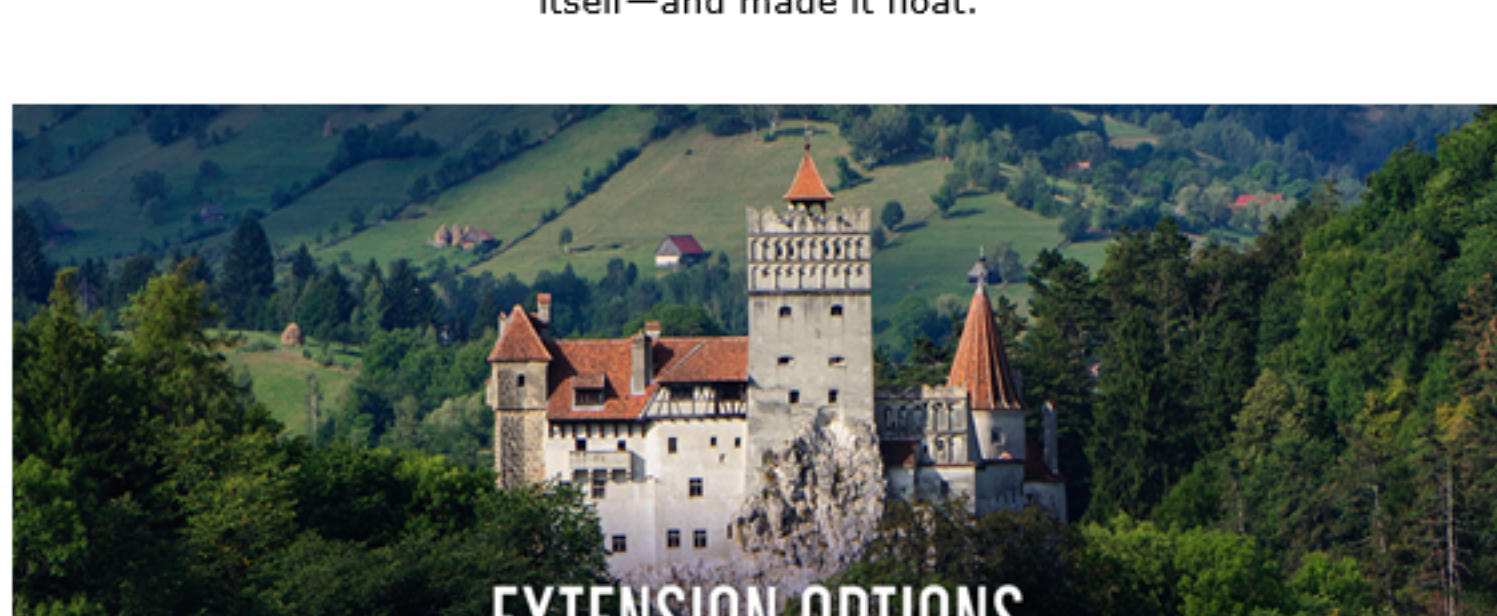

You'll visit the popular destinations every traveler should see in their lifetime—Budapest, Bratislava, Vienna, Salzburg, and Passau—as well as a few that many visitors miss out on. Don't be surprised when the picturesque villages of Melk and Dürnstein, nestled into the UNESCO-designated beauty of the Wachau Valley, turn out to be your favorite stops.

We highlight the best of your destinations with enriching experiences, including private access to the Vienna Art History Museum and a concert of Austria's most famous compositions, organized just for our guests. You'll have the opportunity to sample the excellent wines of the Wachau, embrace nature with active excursions, and watch the world float by on scenic sailings.

The S.S. Maria Theresa will be your home for this journey, staffed with the best crew in river cruising and resplendent decor inspired by the region's imperial history. With its baroque interiors and a portrait of the ship's namesake gracing the lobby, it feels as though we've taken a piece of the Schönbrunn itself—and made it float.

Our Enchanting Danube & the Castles of Transylvania itinerary is the perfect combination of luxury travel by river and by train, extending your trip with a journey into the history and legends surrounding Romania's towns, castles, and scenery.
