

Celebrate the holidays in style at EUROPE'S CHRISTMAS MARKETS

The Christmas season is fast approaching. Our favorite way to spend it? Meandering the charmingly lit towns and festive holiday markets of Europe. A cherished tradition dating back centuries, each market is unique to its destination—making an all-inclusive river cruise through several towns the best way to experience them. At each one, you can expect rows upon rows of merchants selling handmade gifts, hot mulled wine, and delicious local treats.

Europe's Christmas Markets are only available for a few weeks each year, so don't wait—book now, while there's still some space left!
